Actorswood Features Page

Win jobs and influence people!

Actorswood is a powerful networking platform that you'll love to use as your primary acting manager.

Here you will find everything you need to make your acting career a success, from the first "Hello" to the final invoice.

All the details you need are right here, in one place.

How is Actorswood different to anything you've tried before?

This isn't just another basic tool that only scratches the surface of your problems. Actorswood is a comprehensive system that manages your entire acting business. It helps actors set their goals and achieve them.

Contacts

Contacts are everything in this business. So we've designed the Actorswood contacts database, where you can control all those important industry relationships. We'll ensure you utilise every connection you make to get ahead in your acting career.

Auditions & Networking

Organise your diary like a pro with Actorswood's built-in Auditions & Networking manager. Keep on top of all your upcoming and past auditions, record any interviews and callbacks, and save any important related information in one place.

Rehearsal Buddy

No one to run your lines with? With Actorswood's Rehearsal Buddy you can record your script and run your lines at your convenience. This revolutionary app will help sharpen your acting skills and make sure you're prepared for that next great role.

Branding & Marketing

Learn how to market and brand yourself with the Actorswood Branding & Marketing platform. Determine why and how you are going to start your acting career, learn how to market yourself effectively, and refine your brand to determine your future success.

Goals & Tasks

Are you in control of your day? Discover a better way to work with Actorswoods' Goals & Tasks manager. With Smart Goals, we will help you focus on your target, and ensure you work towards your most important objectives.

Money Manager

Integrate Actorswood's Money Manager to stay on top of your finances. From paying for headshots and acting workshops to private coaching, money manager will help you set your acting budget and reach your targets. Improve your finances and your life, and create a personal plan for success.

Gym Management

Need to bulk up, slim down or just stay on top of your fitness? Our Gym Management portal will organise your workouts so you can save your energy for exercise. Get inspired by our gym plans, designed by actor and pro athlete Kevin Jönsson.

Calendar

The Actorswood Calendar will keep track of your day-to-day. Whether you have a private appointment or a professional meeting, plot it in your calendar and we'll keep you updated with what's to come. We'll also keep a record of all your past appointments.
